The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 30. to Tuesday May 3. 1737.

Petersbourg, April 9.

THAT Part of the Ruſſian Army which is to be commanded by Felt-Marſhal Count Munich, and which is to conſiſt, ſome ſay of 70, and others affirm 90,000 regular Troops, beſides a vaſt Number of Tartars, Coſſacks, and Calmucks, is in full March to aſſemble at Zaritzinka; and it is generally believed here, that the Felt Marſhal deſigns very ſoon to beſiege Oczakow on the Mouth of the River Nieper, to try to engage the Grand Vizier to come to a Battle in order to relieve that Place. All the Ammunition and Proviſions for the Army are to be carried down the Nieper by the Boats that have been built this Winter at Bransky. The other Part of the Ruſſian Army, that is to be commanded by Felt-Marſhal Lacy, and which is ſaid to conſiſt of 40,000 regular Troops, beſides Tartars and Coſſacks, is aſſembling at Iſſum on the River Donetz, and is to attack the Crimea, at the ſame time that a great Number of Boats, which have been built this Winter at Taurof on the River Don, are to carry other Troops over the Sea of Aſoph, and attack alſo that Country. Major-General Biron, one of her Czariſh Majeſty's General Adjutants, and Brother to the Great Chamberlain, ſet out from hence the 6th Inſtant in order to join the Army.

Copenhagen, May 4, N. S. The Margravine, who ſeems perfectly recovered, dined Yeſterday in Publick with the Royal Family as uſual. In the Afternoon the Prince Royal ſaw his own Regiment perform their Exerciſe, and paſs in Review before him. The ſame Day Count Iſemburg, and M. Bulow a Captain in the Horſe Guards, were both made Chambellans; Baron Wantzen, a Gentleman of the Electorate of Hanover, was likewiſe admitted Gentleman of the Bed Chamber.

Hague, May 10, N. S. The States Anſwer to the King of Naples's Letter notifying his Acceſſion to that Crown, was delivered Yeſterday to the Spaniſh Ambaſſadour to be forwarded this Day. The States of Holland are aſſembled, and like to ſit till the End of next Week, having many domeſtick Affairs under their Conſideration; and particularly Complaints from the City of Rotterdam, relating to the Cuſtoms collected there.
